2010 – 2012 Career Banker Network Leadership Program

The IBC Education Foundation's Leadership Program is an intensive two-year leadership and career development program designed to enhance the leadership, organizational and performance skills of 15 motivated mid- to upper-level community bankers. The program consists of a total of six sessions (three each year) which concentrate on a different manifestation of business and civic leadership. The Leadership Program participants will also travel to Washington DC to visit Congress and participate in other civic activities. This unique sponsorship is exclusive and limited to one $5,000 sponsorship. Your name and logo will be on all accompanying materials associated with the Leadership Program (applications, newsletter articles, etc.), your company name and logo on our website and you will be recognized at our Annual Convention.
